Nevada raised stock when properly cared for beats the California production in flavor and quality. Gardner takes care of his own herd, and all meat coming from his market is bound to be tender and sweet. 118tf
Meat immediately after being slaughtered is never tender and should be kept a day or two. In order to have it fresh after the expired time it should be kept in a cool place. M. C. Gardner sells meat both tender and fresh, as it is always surrounded by ice at a freezing temperature. 113tf
How CAN PARENTS—Allow their children to cough and calmly say: "Oh! it's only a little cold," and keep giving them cheap medicines, until they are down with lung fever or consumption, when they can be so easily relieved by using BEGG'S CHERRY COUGH SYRUP? It has no superior and few equals. W. H. Chedie, Druggist
COUGH! AND COUGH! AND COUGH!—What in the world is the reason you will cough and keep coughing and still keep trying inferior medicines when BEGG'S CHERRY COUGH SYRUP will positively relieve your cough at once? This is no advertising scheme, but an actual fact, and we guarantee it. W. H. Chedie, Druggist.
Advice to Mothers.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays the pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty five cents a bottle.
Shiloh's Vitalizer is what you want for Constipation, Loss in Appetite, Dizziness, and all symptoms of Dyspepsia. Price 10 and 75 cents per bottle.
M. C. Gardner proposes to keep the fat of the land in his market and is here to stay. Give him a call. 118tf

ALL SORTS.

The Young Men's Republican Club, on deck in good shape.
J. W. Dancy, Democratic nominee for District Judge is in the city.
Senator Stewart is again on the street looking as robust and good natured as ever.
Judge Rising and James Torreyson left for the east last evening on a campaign tour.

Judge Rising, was in the city yesterday taking an airing with Oliver Roberts' stylish turn out.
Mr. El Harris, of the Harris mine in Juniper district accompanied by his wife was in Carson yesterday.

The widow who created such a sensation writes the APPEAL from Salt Lake, that she will soon return and settle with a number of people.

David De Leon the missing man, has not yet turned up. The man recently arrested in Virginia City does not answer the description.

Wm Kinney of Empire contradicts the report that he will run for Sheriff on the Democratic ticket, and will not accept the nomination if tendered him.

The party to be given by St. Margaret's Guild on the night of Friday 17th will be postponed indefinitely, on account of the serious illness of Miss Ella Edwards.

After several years of divorce and separation, Len Wines and his former wife were reunited at Elko last Saturday. Their grown up children and friends brought about the reunion.

Pill Rogers was a candidate before the Democratic Convention of Washoe county for Clerk. Of the 61 votes cast Billy got 2. We would recommend him to stick to the Republican party.

The refusal of the President of the United States and the Secretary of State to receive the Count de Paris is regarded in France as an act of real friendliness between Republic and Republic.

The ceremony of turning the first sod in the work of building the great tunnel which, it is fondly hoped, will change Niagara Falls into a great manufacturing center was performed in the presence of about 2000 people.

Now that the autumn leaves are falling—are falling thick and fast. It's the time to guzzle beer with the bread and cheese repast.

Beer to go with the above beautiful poetry can be had at Jake Kleins in five gallon kegs and upwards.

Jim Townsend says in his Index: A number of candidates' cards appear below, but we have no time to either puff or tell the truth about them in this number of the Index. Next week we'll show them up to the world and endeavor to knock a few spots out of their characters.

Bill Arp, the famous Georgia humorist, has contributed to the Atlanta Constitution one of the best illustrations of the value of the home market that has come to the front:

"You know I was an old fashioned Democrat, brought up to believe in free trade and sailors' rights. I am now, but something has happened. I own a little farm near Antersville. I used to gather my corn and sell it in Atlanta for whatever they would give me. I had some pasture land for my stock and raised wheat, vegetables and fruit in a small way. What we could not consume was wasted. When the tariff went into operation old Joe Brown started some iron developments near by the Antersville station became quite a village. The day before I left home I sold seventeen loads of hay. Buyers didn't bargain for it, but came and took all I could spare at my own price. I haven't sold a bushel of corn in several years. Those fellows come and buy it by the dozen for roasting ears. It's so with everything that grows on my land. I cannot raise as much as they want. I'm in favor of the thing that did it; so I'm a Protectionist."

An Underhanded Fight.

One of the most disreputable and cowardly fights being made in the campaign, is being made against Joseph Eckley candidate for State Printer.
Printers in Virginia City and Carson who have been unable to get into the race, are circulating the report he will reduce wages if elected. This is the meanest of slanders, as the law fixes the wages of all printers working for the State, and it is beyond the power of anything but an Act of the Legislature to reduce these rates.

In view of this sort of tricky work Carson should see that Mr. Eckley has at least 250 majority on election day.

Mr. Eckley has always been a member of the Typographical Union, since following his profession in this State and the Chapel he belongs to, has always insisted on the highest printers wages paid in the United States. As the APPEAL has previously remarked the fight against Mr. Eckley comes from parties who fear that in case he is elected (which he will be by about 1,000 majority) they will lose the chance of running the State Printing Office.

Easily Answered.

The recent rise in the price of silver has put many thousands of dollars into the pockets of bullion producers in Nevada. Have the wages of the miners at any camp in the State been raised on account of the increased profits? If not, who is benefited; the poor or the rich?—Independent.

The poor and rich alike have been benefited. Mines lying idle have been started up and miners put to work. The miners of this State are paid the highest wages known in America for mining, and are not demanding more wages. They merely asked for work.

The Colored Stand-bys.

The colored citizens of Carson met Tuesday evening at the residence of Mr. Wm. Lynch, and permanently organized under the name of the Carson Central Republican Club, electing the following officers:

C. F. Wallace, President; D. J. Harris, Vice President; S. A. Liggin, Secretary; T. Flint, Assistant Secretary; Wm. Lynch, Treasurer; John C. Carroll, Sergeant-at-Arms.

The Ticket.

The Ormsby Republicans ticket published in the APPEAL of this morning is one that every Republican voter in the county can heartily endorse. It was chosen by over 600 republicans at the Crawford primaries and every name on it enjoys the confidence of the public and the party. All in all it is a ticket the superior of which was never presented to the consideration of voters by the Republicans of this county.

J. D. Torreyson.

The Republican nominee for Attorney General was back from a campaigning trip yesterday.

He reports everything in good shape all along the line and no breaks anywhere in Republican forces.

Mr. Torreyson will give the State a reliable, able Attorney General, and a good many Democrats who know him will cast their vote for him.

Heavy Vote.

Yesterday the Democratic primaries called out the full strength of the party, and 90 votes were polled.

Wonder what Roger Q. Mills thinks now? This is what he said in the Baltimore American a month before Congress met: "We Democrats of the House do not propose that the Republican majority shall pass a single measure without our consent. * * * We propose to exercise control of the House just as much as though we were still in the majority."

Honored at Last.

This seems rather a cold year for editors but the Independent manfully stands in a fair way of being elected. He says:
The editor of the Independent feels grateful for the honor of being nominated for School Trustee by both parties. While the compliment is appreciated, he has only to say that two years ago he offered himself as a sacrifice for the thankless office and the people knocked him out; but he assures them that they will never have the opportunity to do it again.

The party occasionally gives the press an unsolicited office to keep the editor in the traces.

Political Dance.

James Wiggins has kindly allowed the use of his commodious dancing hall in Empire for the purpose of holding a candidates dance on the night of the 31st, where ladies can well attend and enjoy the social disposition of office seekers just previous to election. The dance will not be of the old hoe-down order but a social gathering, regardless of politics that no one can afford to miss or deprive his best girl enjoying. Good music has been engaged as well the sumptuous feast which is to be prepared. * * * one all ye candidates and be merry for on the 4th ye die." 1153t

Death of Sam Collyer.

Sam Collyer, a noted character in the early history of the Comstock, died Friday evening at the Billerica ranch, north of town, of pneumonia, after a protracted illness.

Sam Collyer was for some time a watchman at the North Carson mine, and years ago served under Mosby in the civil war.
